IF IMAGINING WERE ENOUGH, IT WOULDN'T BE NECESSARY TO SEA FOR YOURSELF.

Countless stories are told about the Albatross also known as the "most legendary of all the birds".

In Portugal it is the symbol of one of the most prestigious boutique hotel groups called The Albatroz Collection.

A collection that combines valuable pieces, full of history, accumulated over so many years and which, either individually or part of the intrinsic group they belong to, are pieces that reward each of the five senses as well as a sixth, which is the intuition that there is so much more to discover.

Time goes by here too but instead of pushing us hurriedly forwards it takes us softly into a tomorrow which is hoped to be in the colours of the sea, surrounded by the peace and calm of the scenery.

On one side the sea and on the other the views. From Cascais to Lisbon, and all along the coast... if words could only describe such an experience.

This is the reason why we propose The Albatroz Collection - Sea for yourself.

THE CERTAINTY OF ALWAYS WAKING WITH THE SEA AS COMPANY

The Albatroz Seafront Hotel is one of the admirable pieces of the The Albatroz Collection. Located in the calm village of Cascais next to the Conceição beach this boutique hotel overlooks the Atlantic Ocean affording views impossible to ignore.

An authentic beach house endowed with unrivaled architectural features, where rooms and suites benefit from all the comfort and modernity provided by the unique style and ambiance, resulting from their individual decoration.

And if on one hand each room has its own soul, the view is enjoyed by all because of the permanent serene presence of the sea with all its undertones, claiming an ambience favourable for resting and leisure.

Take advantage of the salt water pool on the large outside terrace, sun bathe at leisure or enjoy a meal in the constant company of the sea.

Once out of the hotel the centre of the village is just a short stroll away. If on the other hand you wish to choose the rhythm and life of the city take the 30 minute train ride along the coast into Lisbon.

FOR THOSE WHO ONLY SLEPT IN PALACES
IN THEIR DREAMS

Overlooking the sea The Albatroz Beachside Palace is another piece of The Albatroz Collection. Built in the first years of the 20th century it distinguishes itself by its Italian architecture which features a group of arches and columns of rare beauty.

Although much of the decoration used in the rooms and suites is wood, the truth is that each one enjoys an exclusive and individual identity, a uniqueness that contrasts with the permanent shared view to the sea.

The proximity to the sea and the centre of the village of Cascais is truly the hotel's best asset, allowing for quick and convenient access to the most different places.

In each corner of this jewel in the collection one can feel the influence of many years of history. It is no less true that sometimes, maybe because of the ambience but also because of the magic therein, there is a feeling of living a fairy tale.
